13. If the Human Resources Committee determines that an investigation should be launched, the Human Resources Committee may decide to contract an external investigator. In such cases, FORT WILLIAM CURLING CLUB's Chairperson may be notified that an investigation conducted by an external investigator is necessary without the nature of the investigation, content of the report, or identity of the Worker who submitted the report being disclosed. FORT WILLIAM CURLING CLUB's Chairperson may not unreasonably refuse the decision to contract an external investigator
